This hands-on training class for COMMANDconcrete users takes a detailed look at the functions, features, and configuration options of COMMANDtrack, our recommended tracking and scheduling solution, that provides a highly functional, reliable approach to managing dispatch operations.

NOTE: This class content is designed for CS08 Version 2 users that are not running COMMANDoptimize.

What's new in COMMANDtrack 2018

- Plant group availability
- Screen layout exit prompt
- Improvements to Scheduling demand lines
- Improvements to visual layout of Truck Tracking
- Additional options in Show Loads display
- New configuration flags and options

COMMANDtrack Features

- Tabbed windows
- Multiple display support
- Dock, undock and pin options
- Enhanced search functions
- "Hover over" tool tip balloons
- Previous days capability
- Multiple order, plant, scheduling and truck windows available
- Display indicators for keyboard shortcuts
- Multiple scheduling screens
- Simplified toggle for scheduling features
- Access to active orders from scheduling screen
- Order highlight functionality on scheduling graph
- Scheduling screen color legend
- Screen layouts defined per user

COMMANDtrack Daily Use

- COMMANDtrack Display
- Using COMMANDtrack
- Selecting windows
- Customizing the layout

COMMANDtrack Configuration

- General configuration
- Tracking configuration
- Scheduling configuration
- Hotkey configuration
- Screen layout configuration
- Admin mode and user setup
- Privileges

Command Alkon