

All operators benefit from reviewing and improving their skills and increasing their confidence with the COMMANDbatch system. This hands-on training class addresses those activities that are most important to the basic operations and daily functions operators perform using COMMANDbatch. This course is designed for operators familiar with using COMMANDbatch and want to learn more about customizing and best practices for daily operations.

EZ Cal Basics & Troubleshooting

- Main hardware components
- Zeroing scales and resetting counters
- Manual station and I/O box relationship and limitations
- Editing and printing Scale and Manual Station labels
- EZCAL IP system communication troubleshooting
- I/O box troubleshooting
- Standard EZ-CAL electrical interlocks
- Manual Station Key Switch

COMMANDbatch Basics

- EBATCH vs. Archive vs End Of Year
- Navigation
- Right click menus
- Customizing COMMANDbatch: shortcuts, form size/splitter, auto run, grid changes
- HELP and documentation
- Running forms
- Batch Setup
- Batch Graphics
- Running an automatic batch
- Aggregate moisture adjustments
- Water trimming
- Slump adjustment
- Holding, resuming loads and devices
- Batch Exception Notifications
- Aborting loads vs. aborting devices
- Manual adjustments while batching
- Reading batch records
- Reprinting tickets/weights
- Adding new trucks
- Adding new drivers
- Adding new materials
- Managing inventory
- Modifying Mix Designs
- Admix Designs
- Performing washout
- Running reports
- End of day processes

